

Knowledge Testing

Examiners are to monitor the testing.

If an applicant is caught cheating on any test, the test shall be cancelled immediately. The applicant shall be asked to leave the facility and a note shall be placed in the applicant's record.

No electronic assistance is allowed during testing. All electronic devices must be left outside the testing area. This includes cell phones, smart watches, ear buds, etc.

If caught cheating, the applicant may not return to test again until 6 months have passed.

If an applicant is aggrieved by the expulsion, the applicant may file an appeal with the MS Department of Public Safety. The appeal shall be in writing and sent to:
